

I would hope that the FCC stands behind the telephone Consumer Protection Act. Telemarketing phone calls have become a nuisance in our society and the public should have a right to be able to say "no" to these phone calls!